

KAW 2010 THROW BALL RULES

- Each team consists of up to 15 players
- Each player must be a KAW 2010 member prior to the start of the game to be eligible
- Only 6 players are allowed on the court while the ball is in play
- Round robin matches should be played for a score of 15 points using the service rule
- Preliminary Games played for a score of 15 points (win by two) only one set
- Semis and Finals played for a score of 15 points with the best 2 out of 3 matches
- 3 substitutions are allowed for each set
- Team can take two time-outs of 30 seconds each during a SET
- Teams will get a 10-minute break in-between the preliminary games and 20-minute break in-between Semis and Finals
- The ball has to be caught with both the hands and returned in one hand only
- If a fair service touches the net it is a re-serve
- During catching or releasing, the ball should not touch any part of the body except the palm, wrist, and forearm (until the elbow)
- The body should not touch the net at any time during the play
- No “underarm” allowed- both in service and rally throws
- The length of court shall be 27 feet and the net height shall be 7.2 feet
- The team players will rotate their serves in a “z” shape fashion
- The ball missed by a player can be caught by another player in the first attempt
- Service can be taken anywhere between the right side line and middle line
- A line will be drawn inside the court 1 ft from the end line between right side line and mid line
- Any ball after catching (during rally) should be released within 3 seconds
- Two players cannot catch the ball simultaneously
- The player should have contact with the ground when catching the ball
- Any ball (Service/Rally) falling on the side-line or the end-line is a good ball
- The ball (Service/Rally) should not touch the antenna (post)
- Ball caught after bouncing back from the net is not valid
- Service should start only after the umpire blows the whistle
- KAW will appoint neutral officiating personnel for all the games
- The officiating personnel’s (referees, umpires, scorers) decision will be final. Only captains are allowed to talk to the officiating personnel’s regarding any decisions. The officiating personnel have the authority to stop the game and award the game to the opposition if the officiating personnel feel that the action of a player (or players) brings the game into disrepute. Such actions include, but not limited to:
 - Expressing dissent at an officiating personnel’s decision by word or by action
 - Using a language or a gesture that is obscene, offensive or insulting to another player, officiating personnel, KAW office bearer(s), or spectator(s)
 - Walking out or threatening to walk out of the game
- This is a community event. We want everyone to make friends—and not enemies—after the event. Please respect fellow players, organizers, and officials.